

Making a Difference at MTC

Midway Therapy Center (MTC) is committed to improving the lives of children with autism and special needs. At MTC, our primary focus is on understanding their unique needs and maximizing their potential. To achieve this, we offer specialized programs and guidance to help families understand their roles and responsibilities in supporting their loved ones. We believe every family member is critical in helping individuals with autism understand their behavior and reach their full potential. Our approach is centered on embracing their word and providing tailored support that addresses their specific needs.
